  6. IN THE NEWS - The On Our Way collective (Vicky, Nancy, Lottie) is not publishing a newsletter this fall because we are devoting our time to getting greater outside coverage. We are coordinating articles about the Center for various local media. The Women's Center as a whole is out-reaching to Boston area women in several ways for the Center is going strong and is in a position to assist more women in their life growth/struggle! Your ideas, media contacts, and updated news is needed. Also, though we are concentrating on outside coverage, we will publish in-house Women's Circulars to keep you up-to-date.
  7. FEMINIST CREDIT UNION - if you want to join via the Center call Lottie 223-380
